Developed in 1949 by the National Interfraternity Conference Committee on Public Relations is the following list of important public relations objectives which the Committee recommends to all fraternity men:

1. Excellence in scholarship
2. Full assumption of civic responsibilities in the college community
3. Wholehearted cooperation with college officials
4. Personal development of the individual

Success in attaining these goals is the most important step toward good public relations on the part of fraternities.

Missouri Installation

ON April 21, 1951, the University of Missouri Chapter was installed at Columbia, Missouri, to become the fifth chapter to be represented in the Big Seven Conference. The new chapter takes its place alongside conference brothers at Iowa State, Kansas, Nebraska, and Oklahoma.

After receiving encouragement from the University, James Gallagher, then Field Secretary, went to the campus in the spring of 1950 to assist a group of students in organizing a local fraternity. The group, Chi Delta, operated under its own rules and by-laws for over a year before petitioning Delta Chi Fraternity for a charter. During this period Walter Henry, who was Field Secretary at the time, visited the group to assist in its organizing work. The approval for a charter grant was given in February and Richard Egan, Field Secretary, went to the campus in March to arrange for the installation.

The officers of Chi Delta were initiated into Delta Chi at the Kansas Chapter on March 17. A month later the rest of the members of Chi Delta were initiated as members of the Missouri Chapter at the installation ceremonies. National Officers and representatives who made up the installing party included Henry V. McGurran, "AA" Emeritus; John B. Harshman, Past - "AA"; Donald G. Isett, Executive Secretary; James E. Gallagher, then Assistant to the Executive Secretary; and Richard Egan and Townsend MacCoun, both Field Secretaries. The University of Missouri was represented at the installation banquet held at the Tiger Hotel in Columbia by Thomas A. Brady, Vice-President in charge of Business Operations, and the Kansas Chapter was represented by Kirke Grutmacher, "A". Many messages of congratulations were read from officers and chapters of Delta Chi.

The University of Missouri, the oldest state university west of the Mississippi River, was founded in 1839 and the first national fraternity was established on the campus thirty years later. The campus had nine national fraternities by the turn of the century. With the installation of the Missouri Chapter, the Fraternity has forged another link in the chain of chapters which extends from coast to coast and beyond national borders.

Second for Alabama

IN May, 1950, after careful preliminary investigation by the National Fraternity, a group of interested students was organized into a colony of Delta Chi at Alabama Polytechnic Institute, popularly known as Auburn. Walter Henry, who was Field Secretary at the time, spent the few remaining weeks of the 1949-50 school year on the campus organizing the group and planning rushing activities for the coming year. The group returned to school the following fall holding its meetings in a temporary building owned by the school. The members of the initial group, Lee Moon, Jerry Betbeze, Charles Cardin, Robert Petty, Charles Dent, Charles Duke, Bob Odgers, Jim Cannon, Wesley Brown, Ray Harvey, Tommy Paxton, Jack Williams and Harold Williams, continued to build the membership and moved into a small five-room house, which was occupied until March of this year. It was not long, however, before the group outgrew the house and moved into the present chapter house which can accommodate from thirty-five to forty members.

As the colony progressed, plans were made for the installation. Townsend MacCoun, Field Secretary during the winter of 1950-51, was sent to the campus to arrange for the installation and the date was set for May 5, 1951, nearly one year after the colony was first organized. The installation ceremonies were preceded by an all-campus street dance and housewarming. On the evening of May 5, the colony assembled at the Pitts Hotel in Auburn to receive the charge as a new chapter of Delta Chi from Charles M. Thompson, "AA", and to acknowledge the welcome to the campus from college president, Ralph Draughon. James E. Gallagher, then Assistant to the Executive Secretary, presented the charter to the new chapter. These men and members of the Alabama Chapter installed as a chapter a colony which has, in the past year, added to its original membership seven new members and fourteen pledges.

Alabama Polytechnic Institute, a state-supported co-educational school, was founded in 1872 at Auburn, Alabama, a city with a population of about 7,000. Recent enrollment of the school has been around 7,000. The first college in Auburn was really East Alabama Male College which was established in 1857. After several changes in structure, the school adopted its present form of organization (1872) although the name was not changed to Alabama Polytechnic Institute until January 27, 1899. As a fraternity school, A.P.I. is an old one. The first national fraternity was established on the campus in 1878 and six fraternities had located chapters there before the present name of the Institution was adopted in 1899. The fraternity history of the school has been long and the educational facilities of the school have kept pace with the demand. Delta Chi Fraternity is proud to be represented on the campus.

ILLINOIS

A Portfolio of Delta Chi Houses

THIS beautiful home of the Illinois Chapter, at 1111 South First Street in Champaign, was the scene of the 1951 Midwest Regional Conference. More national college fraternities are represented at the University of Illinois than at any other college or university in the United States and fifteen national fraternities and honor societies have been founded here.

THE first chapter in the southeastern part of the United States, the Florida Chapter at Gainesville celebrated its Silver Anniversary this past year. The Chapter proved last year that something can be done about scholarship when the will is present. The Chapter rose in campus standings from twenty-third or last place to third place in one school year as a result of a new scholarship program in the Chapter. The Chapter has won the National Scholarship Trophy twice and the Scholarship Improvement Plaque twice.

FLORIDA

HOBART

ONE of three active chapters in New York is the Hobart Chapter at Geneva. The Chapter was founded nearly sixty years after the founding of the Fraternity at Cornell, some thirty miles from Geneva. The Hobart Chapter was the first new chapter to be installed following World War II. This home at 544 South Main in Geneva overlooks Seneca Lake of the Finger Lakes in central New York.

IOWA STATE

INSTALLED thirty-three years to the day after the founding of the Fraternity at Cornell University, Delta Chi took its place on the Iowa State campus in 1923 following a petition from a local fraternity, Hau Ki. Ten years later, as the Chapter grew, it absorbed another local fraternity, Sigma Sigma, and moved into its present chapter house at 405 Hayward Avenue in Ames. The Sigma Sigma housemother, Mrs. Schwendenner, is still with the Chapter and enters her twentieth year of service this fall.

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

ATTESTING to the gregarious nature of the Texan is the fact that the S.M.U. Chapter, founded in 1927, has had more of its alumni serve the Fraternity as field secretaries than any other chapter. Fraternities first appeared on the S.M.U. campus just four years after the University was founded and Delta Chi was the eighth national fraternity to be represented by a chapter. The Housemother in this Georgian Colonial home, Mother Chandler, has been with the Chapter twenty-two years. The Chapter celebrates its Silver Anniversary this coming year.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

THE Delta Chi Chapter at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles is the second oldest fraternity chapter on that campus. It was installed in 1910 and in the past four decades has helped make Los Angeles the city with more Delta Chis than any other city in the United States.

CORNELL

SIXTY-ONE years ago this fall Delta Chi Fraternity was founded at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York. As evidence of the contribution, other than founding, which the Cornell Chapter has made to the Fraternity is the fact that the Chapter has initiated more members than any other chapter (752), has been host to four national conventions, and nearly one-third of all national officers in the history of the Fraternity have come from the Chapter on The Knoll.

OHIO STATE

THE Ohio State Chapter celebrates its Golden Anniversary this coming year. The annual Chapter Founder's Day banquet each May is a highpoint in each school year for this Chapter. As a fraternity school, Ohio State University has been a leader in developing the fraternity Greek Week idea, replacing the juvenile initiation practices with an educational program. The Ohio State Chapter has been host to two national conventions in Columbus.

THE Miami University Chapter, entering its twentieth year, is located at a school with a distinguished fraternity history. Miami University, the second oldest state educational institution west of the Allegheny Mountains, is the site of the founding of four national fraternities and three national sororities and from this set of circumstances came the Miami Triad. Scholarship in the Miami Chapter has long been above average.

MIAMI UNIVERSITY

THE largest chapter ever to be installed in the history of the Fraternity is the Arizona State Chapter. Seventy names are on the charter. Still a young chapter, no other national fraternity can claim a year of founding at Arizona State earlier than Delta Chi. Installed December 10, 1949, on the growing campus at Tempe, the Chapter is another link connecting the chain of chapters from coast to coast. Located in the heart of the Salt River Valley, the campus offers an ideal climate for the sun-loving student.

ARIZONA STATE

THE second oldest chapter from the standpoint of continuous existence is the Minnesota Chapter. The Chapter enters its sixtieth year this fall. This was the first chapter installed at a Big Ten school and the Chapter was host to the Twentieth Convention, the first national convention held following World War I. The Chapter house address is 1601 University Avenue S.E., Minneapolis.

MINNESOTA

MICHIGAN

THE Michigan Chapter was founded nearly sixty years ago and was the second chapter to receive a charter as a chapter of Delta Chi. Inactive for a period following the depression, the Chapter returned to the campus after World War II to become the first of the pre-war inactive chapters to be re-activated. The first national convention of the Fraternity was held at the Michigan Chapter in 1894 and four alumni of this Chapter have served the Fraternity as "AA". Twelve national fraternities or societies have been founded at Michigan.

WASHINGTON

ALTHOUGH not the oldest chapter west of the Rocky Mountains, the Washington Chapter at Seattle has initiated more members than any other chapter on the Pacific coast and the second highest number of any chapter in the Fraternity. The Chapter is the "northernmost" Chapter in the realm of Delta Chi and was one of the early fraternity chapters to be established on the campus, having been installed in 1908.

ROLLINS

THE Rollins Chapter at Winter Park, Florida, was the last chapter to be installed before the start of World War II. Each year an award is made to the outstanding chapter member in honor of Edward Lott, a charter member, the first member of the Chapter to give his life during the war. The Chapter is housed in Lyman Hall, a college dormitory on the Rollins College campus.

LAKE FOREST

WHEN the Lake Forest Chapter was installed last year, it received a charter dating back to 1896. The charter was originally held in the Law School affiliated with the College. Later the Chapter was transferred to the Chicago-Kent College of Law where it remained until 1934. In February 1950, the charter returned to Lake Forest to give the "reborn" Chapter a fifty-five year heritage.

TEXAS

THE Texas Chapter was the first chapter established in the southern part of the United States. It was nearly twenty years before another chapter was to join the Texas Chapter in representing this section of the country. Installed in 1907 in Austin, the Chapter has won the National Scholarship Trophy once and the Scholarship Improvement Plaque twice.

L. S. U.

WHEN the L.S.U. Chapter was installed in 1941 almost all charter members were also members of Phi Eta Sigma, freshmen honorary. This contributed in no small measure to the winning of the National Scholarship Trophy by the Chapter in 1942.

KANSAS

THIS beautiful home of the Kansas Chapter is at Lawrence, Kansas. The Chapter was one of the many founded during the 1920's, which decade saw more chapters established than any other decade. It was the first of the present active chapters to be installed following World War I and the second to be installed in a Big Seven Conference school.

PURDUE

ONE of three chapters in Indiana, the Purdue Chapter is located at 351 North Western Avenue, West Lafayette. The Chapter was installed in 1927, the year that saw more chapters established than any other year. The Purdue Chapter and its French Morocco style home, was host in 1946 to the first Regional Conference to be held after World War II.

PENN STATE

THIS spacious home of Penn State Chapter members and pledges is located amidst beautiful mountain scenery at State College, Pennsylvania, in the Nittany Valley. The Chapter was installed in 1929 on the Penn State campus, which is often jokingly said to be the most easily inaccessible college campus in America. It was this Chapter which in 1937 provided the idea from which the Regional Conference program evolved.

IDAHO

THE Idaho Chapter at Moscow, Idaho, established in 1924, was the second chapter to represent the Northwest in the Fraternity. The University, created by territorial legislature in 1899, is older than the state it serves. The Chapter house, located on a beautiful campus only seven miles from the Washington State Chapter at Pullman, Washington, was partially burned two years ago. The traditional Pirate's Dance is a highpoint on the Chapter's calendar each year.

OREGON STATE

ANOTHER chapter with more than its share of scholastic honors is the Oregon State Chapter. The Chapter has won the National Scholarship Trophy three times and has a "lifetime" scholarship rank well above the campus and fraternity average. Located in the heart of the Willamette Valley at Corvallis, Oregon, the Chapter was installed twenty years ago following a merger of two local fraternities, Delta Kappa and Theta Delta Nu. The Chapter is located farther west than any other chapter.

MICHIGAN STATE

THE Michigan State Chapter was installed in 1935 at Michigan State College in East Lansing, Michigan, the first land grant college founded in the United States. Although the Chapter is comparatively young, it stands tenth in a long list of fraternity chapters at Michigan State College. Forty-three years younger than its sister chapter at Ann Arbor, the Chapter helps complete the representation of Delta Chi in Big Ten schools.

BAMA

THE Alabama Chapter occupies a choice location on the University of Alabama campus. Located at University, Alabama, on the outskirts of Tuscaloosa, the Chapter was installed in 1927, and will observe its Silver Anniversary this coming year. During the past year, the Chapter assisted in installing the A.P.I. Chapter at Auburn and in March of 1950 the Chapter was host to the Southern Regional Conference.

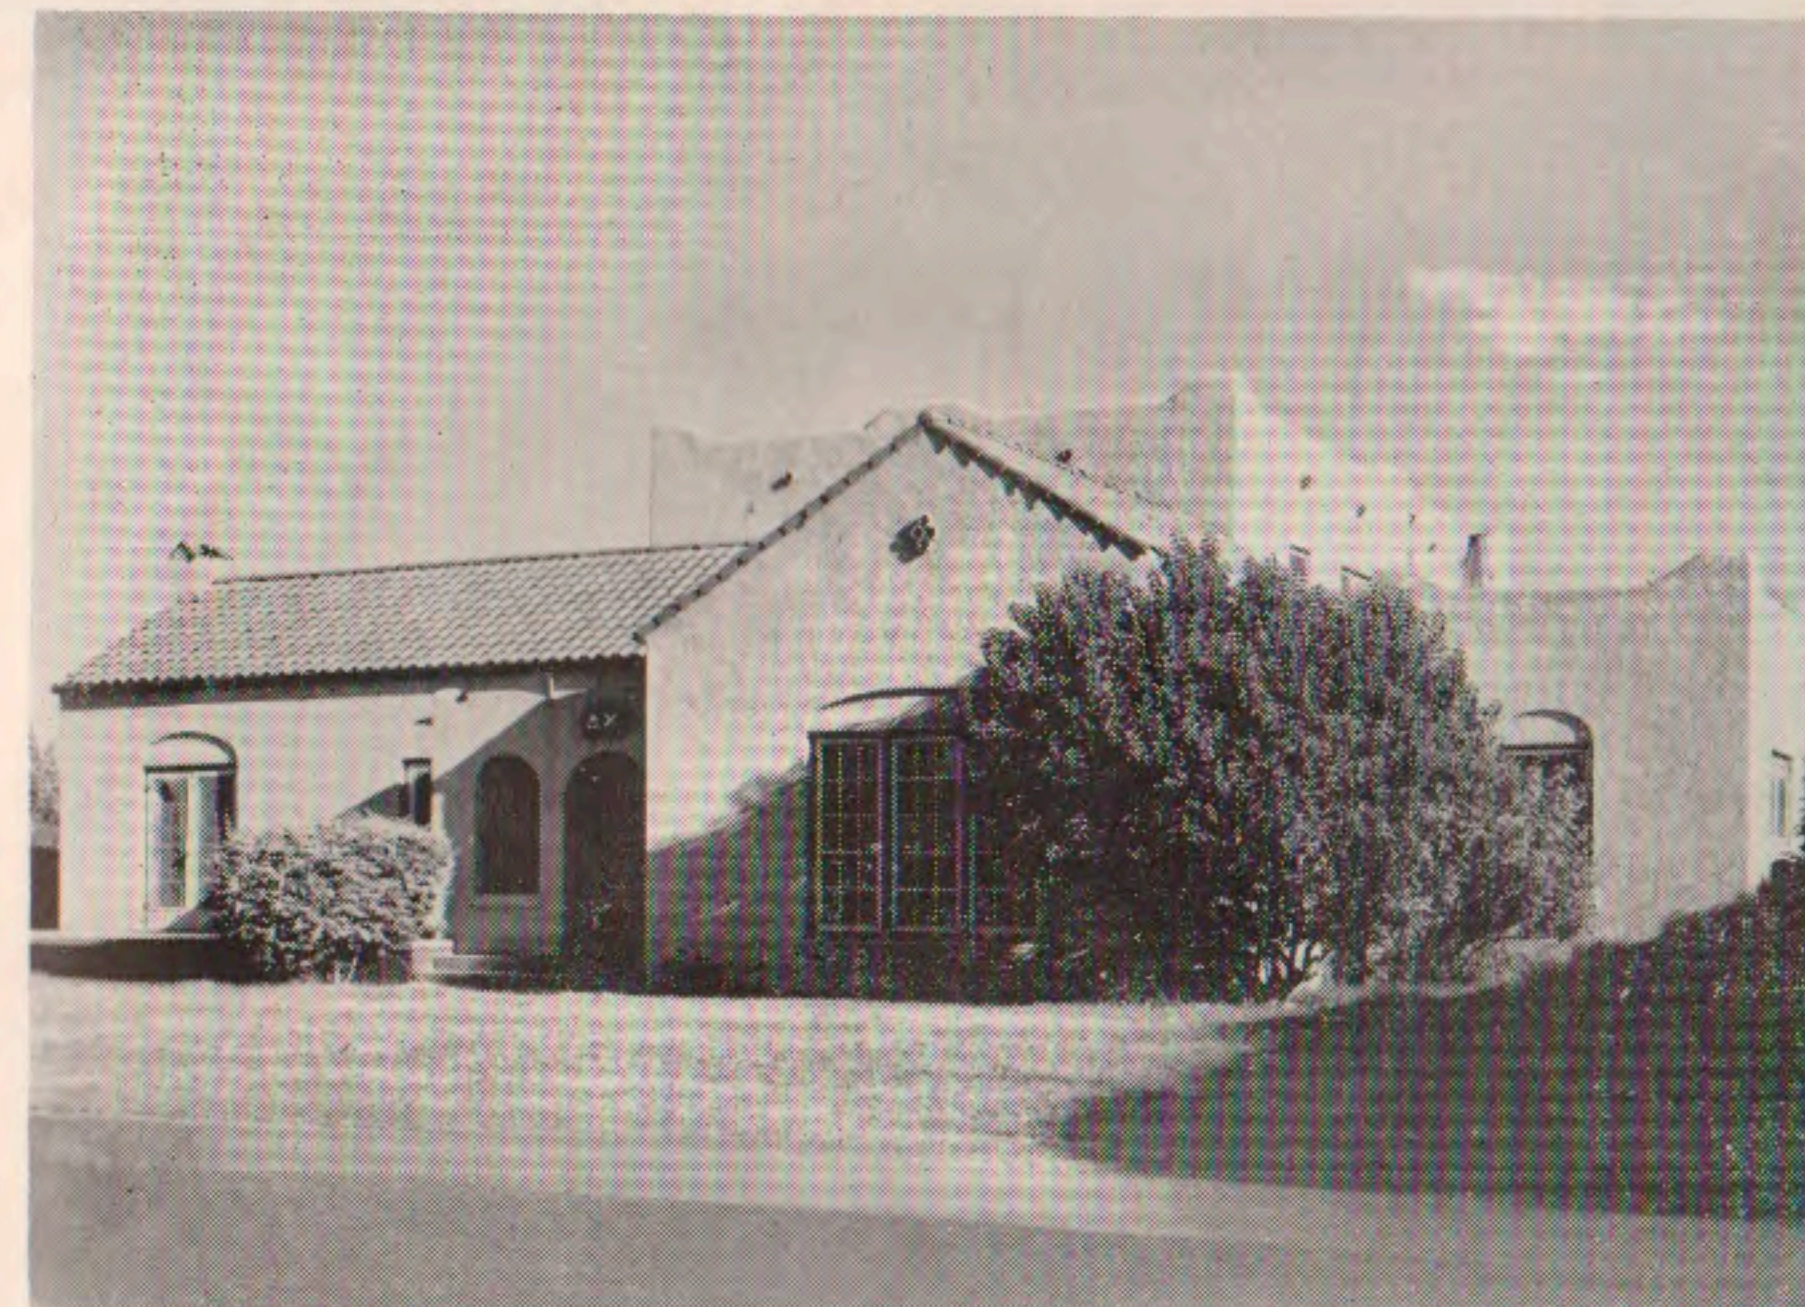

CALIFORNIA

THE California Chapter at Berkeley was established in 1910 and five years later was principal host to the Nineteenth Convention, the only national convention ever held on the Pacific Coast. The strong and active alumni organization in the Bay Area obtained this Chapter house for the Chapter after World War II. The Chapter house is located on the University of California campus at 2725 Haste Street, Berkeley.

KENTUCKY

NEARING its fortieth birthday is the Kentucky Chapter at the University of Kentucky in Lexington. The ninth of the national fraternities on the campus, the Kentucky Chapter was installed during the first year of World War I. It was the second chapter of the Fraternity to be installed in the southern half of the United States.

ARIZONA

THE Arizona Chapter was the first step in bridging the big gap between the Midwest and Pacific Coast chapters. Installed in 1925 to become the sixth fraternity on the campus, the Chapter has passed its Silver Anniversary. The University, although created by the legislature in 1885, did not open to students until 1891, the year following the founding of Delta Chi Fraternity at Cornell University. Following World War II the Arizona Chapter was instrumental in interesting a local fraternity at Arizona State College to petition for a charter of Delta Chi.

INDIANA

THE oldest chapter in Indiana in point of continuous existence, the Indiana Chapter celebrated its Silver Anniversary last year. The Chapter house, known to Chapter members and alumni as Wingate Lodge, overlooks the Quadrangle on the Indiana University campus. It is probably the only chapter of any fraternity holding the distinction of having had three All-American athletes at the same time. In 1938, the Indiana Chapter was host to the first of the Regional Conferences as we know them today.

UNION

A Chapter celebrating its Golden Anniversary this year is the Union Chapter at Schenectady, New York. Union College, often known as the Mother of College Fraternities, is the site of the founding of six national college fraternities of which three were the first college fraternities, as they are known today, to be organized at any college in the United States. Before becoming the Union Chapter, the charter was held by a chapter in the Albany Law School. For this reason, the Union Chapter carries a date of founding as 1901 and is the first chapter to be established after the turn of the century.

OKLAHOMA A & M

THE Oklahoma A & M Chapter, at Stillwater, Oklahoma, was installed in 1948 to become the second new chapter to be installed following World War II. The college is one year younger than the Fraternity, having been founded in 1891. The Chapter house is at 306 Jefferson Street, Stillwater.

OSGOODE HALL

THE Fraternity became international with the establishment of the Osgoode Hall Chapter in Toronto, Canada. Originally all members came from Osgoode Hall, a Law School, but now many members are enrolled in the University of Toronto. Two alumni of this Chapter have become "AA" and two national conventions have been held with this chapter as host. In 1947 the Chapter and alumni celebrated the Golden Anniversary of the Osgoode Hall Chapter.

DePAUW

STANFORD

THE first chapter to be founded in the western half of the United States (1905), the Stanford Chapter has produced more than its share of luminaries. To list a few would be an injustice to the many who have gone from this Chapter to become leaders in business, professional, and educational fields. The beautiful Stanford campus is located near Palo Alto, California, down the peninsula from San Francisco.

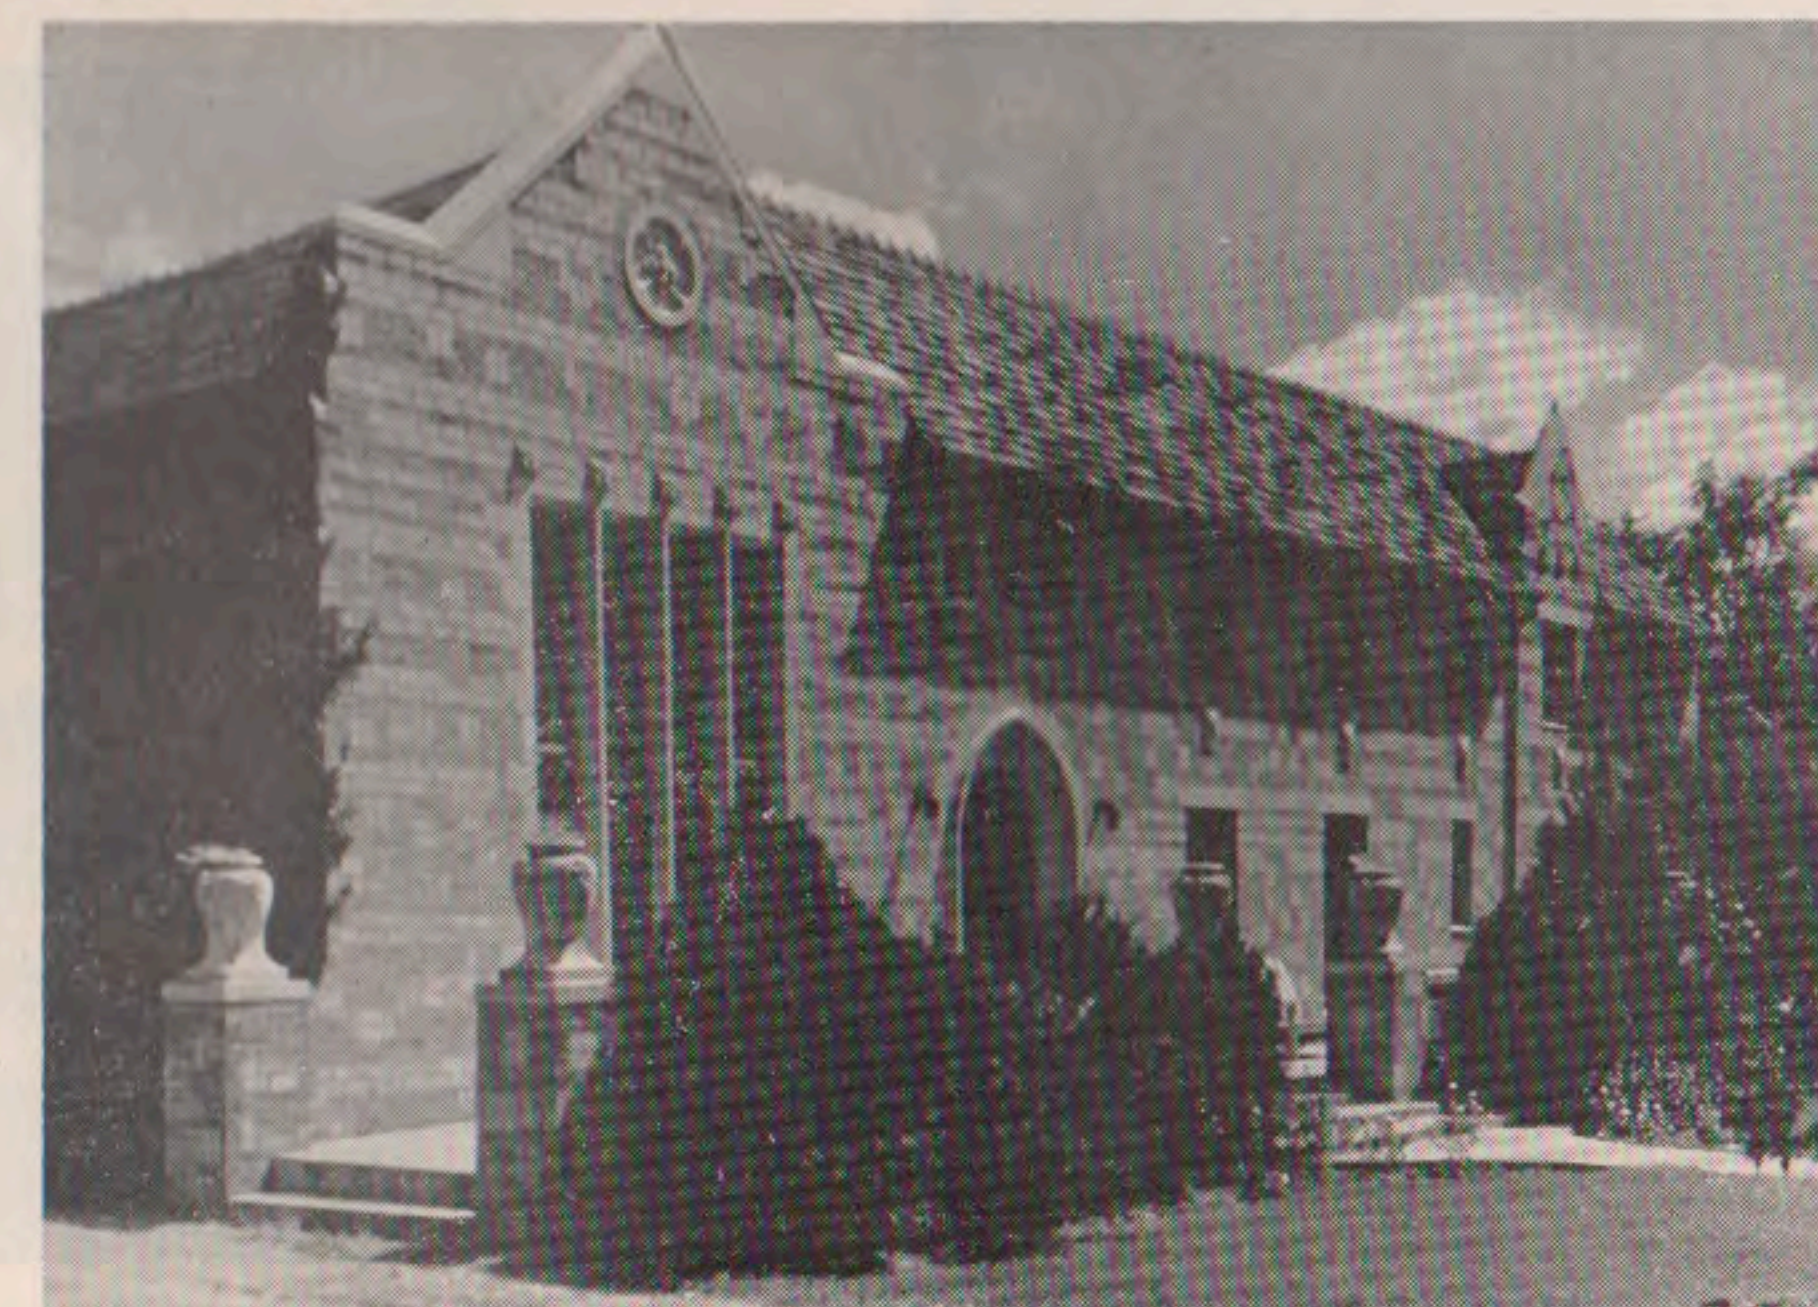

U. C. L. A.

ALTHOUGH the Washington State Chapter was forced to close its doors in 1943 a few weeks after the Chapter was installed when the membership was called to service en masse, it reopened in 1947-48 and has been at the top of the scholarship parade since. At one time during recent years it ranked scholastically in the upper one percent of all chapters of all national fraternities. The Chapter has won the National Scholarship Trophy every year that the Chapter has been in existence.

WASHINGTON STATE

OKLAHOMA

ANOTHER of the many chapters established in the 1920's is the Oklahoma Chapter at Norman. The Chapter house, pictured here, was obtained following World War II from a sorority. In 1948-49, the Chapter was very helpful in the expansion work at Oklahoma A & M College which resulted in the second chapter in the Sooner State. The 1951 Trans-Mississippi Regional Conference was held at the Oklahoma Chapter.

ONE of two active chapters in Los Angeles, the U.C.L.A. Chapter in Westwood was chartered in 1934. National fraternities went on the U.C.L.A. campus just two years after the institution was founded in 1919 and have grown with the school. The U.C.L.A. Chapter, located at 1226 McClellan Drive, joins with its sister chapter, at Southern California and with the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter each year in observing Founder's Day.

NEBRASKA

MEMBERS and pledges of the Nebraska Chapter compete annually for the Metzger Scholarship Award, an award which alumni of other chapters can well afford to emulate. Founded in 1909 to become the first chapter in a Big Seven school, the Chapter was inactive from 1935 to 1948. The Chapter house, not pictured, is located at 545 North Sixteenth Street in Lincoln.

IOWA

THE "baby" chapter of the Fraternity is the A.P.I. chapter which was installed at Auburn, Alabama, on May 5, 1951. An "old" fraternity school, A.P.I. is rich in tradition yet modern in its educational approach. The A.P.I. Chapter house, not pictured, is located at 337 East Magnolia Avenue, Auburn.

ALABAMA POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE

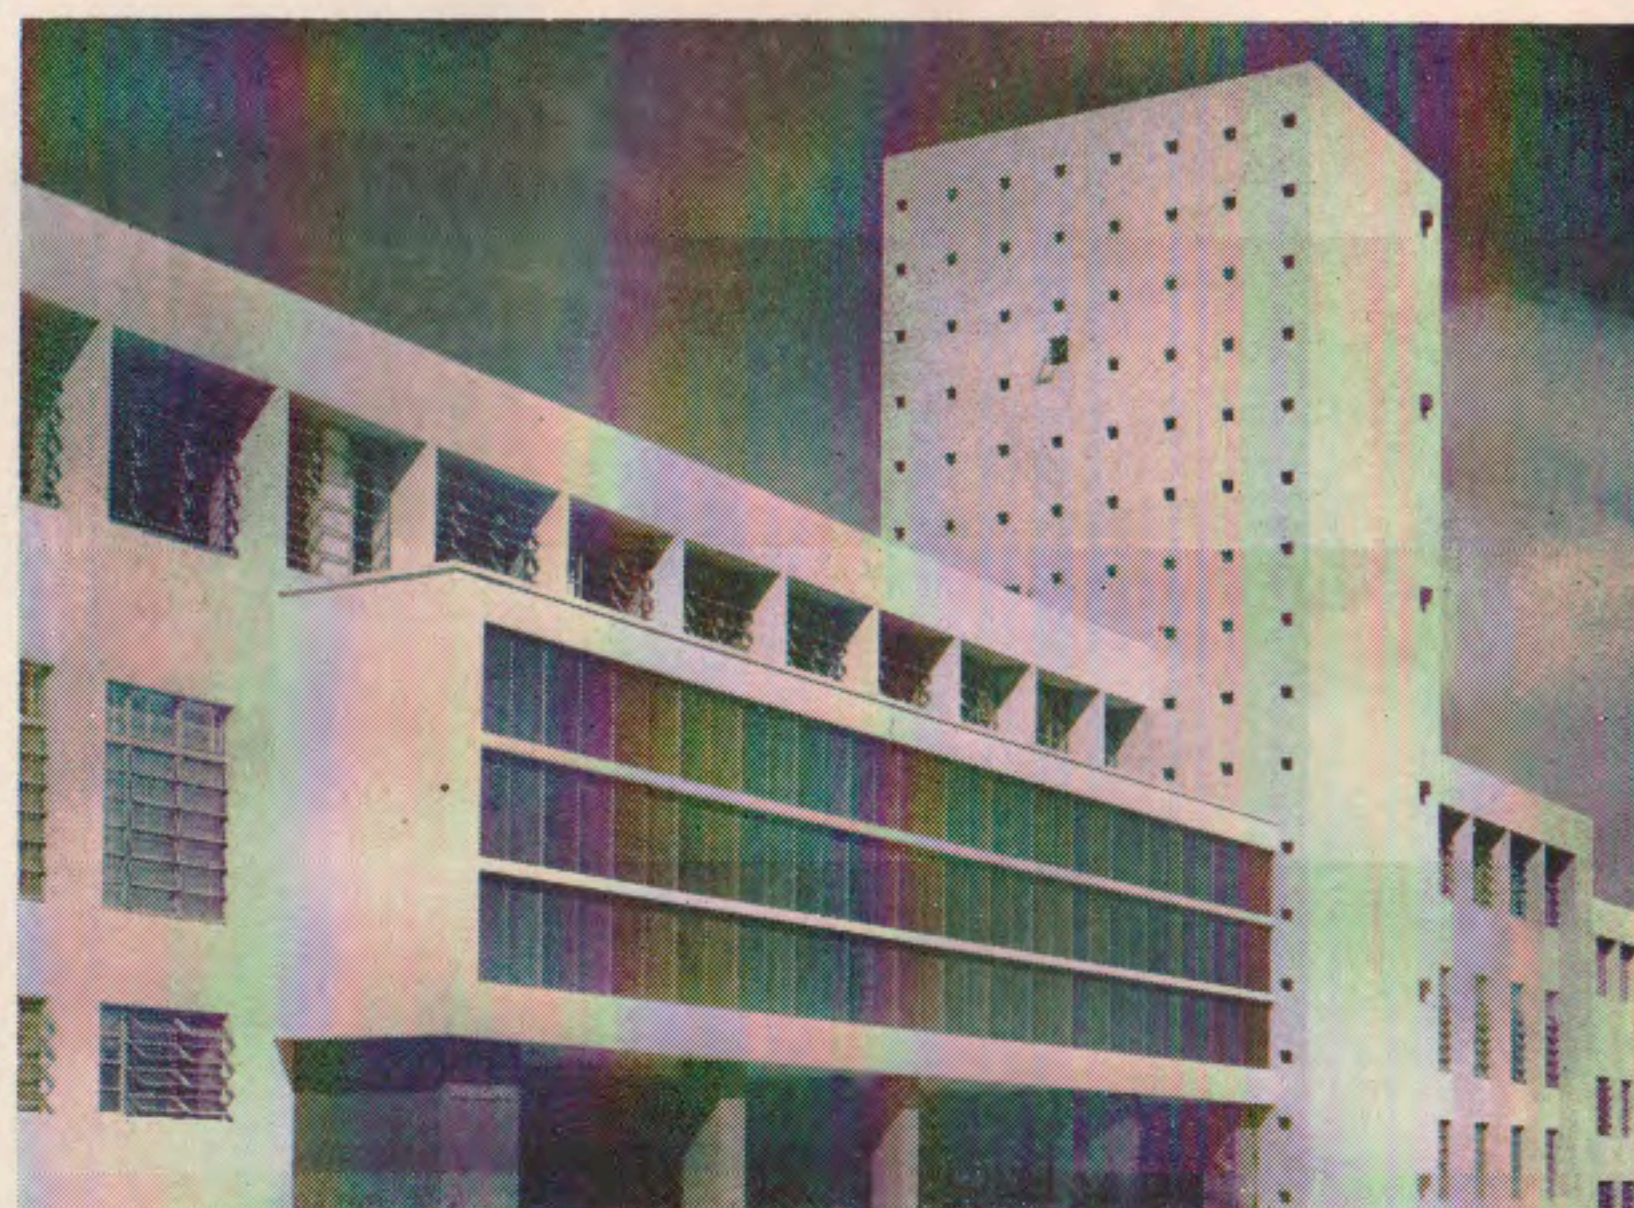

THE University of Miami Chapter at Coral Gables, Florida, is a young chapter in a young school. As evidence of the growth of the fraternity system at the University of Miami is the fact that fifteen of the twenty-two national fraternities on the campus have been established since World War II. The University was founded in 1925 and has multiplied its enrollment fifteen times since that date. The Delta Chi Chapter was installed in 1950.

THIS Chapter home overlooks the Iowa River in Iowa City. The Iowa Chapter, forty years old this coming year, lives in the Chateau. Of French Provincial design, it was one of the first examples of French architecture in the Hawkeye state. A year ago the Chapter won the Interfraternity Council award for the most improvement in scholarship. The program of Fraternity-University relation and cooperation has been developed here probably more than at any other school.

MISSOURI

THE Missouri Chapter, installed earlier this year, is located at the University of Missouri, the oldest state university west of the Mississippi River. The new Chapter has just obtained a house but a picture is not available at this time. The "Columns" shown here, are from the first Administration Building on the campus.

Sustaining Members

DURING the past year, the following loyal alumni have become "Lifers" under the Alumni Life Membership plan of the Fraternity:

MARK AMEN, Illinois '30
REUBEN T. CARLSON, Georgetown '26
THOMAS CHISHOLM, S.M.U. '47
FRED CLARK, Stanford '35
LEONARD C. EHLERS, Oklahoma A & M '51
THOMAS F. HARGIS, Jr., Washington '41
JOSEPH Y. POWELL, Texas '11
B. K. ROBERTS, Florida '28
GERALD SEAMAN, Iowa State '35
CHARLES VOGT, Jr., Nebraska '32
HOWARD V. WARD, Michigan State '48

The alumnus who enrolls under the Alumni Life Membership plan contributes in a positive way to the advancement of the program of the Fraternity. It was inaugurated in 1935 as a means of furthering constructive and creative projects which are constantly being undertaken to aid the growth and development of the undergraduate chapters and to maintain alumni interest and contacts in fraternity activities.

It is not difficult to become an Alumni Life Member. If an alumnus was initiated after August 1923, or was initiated prior to that time and paid his life subscription to the Quarterly, his payment is $60.00. If he was initiated prior to August 1923 and has not since paid his life subscription to the Quarterly, his payment is $72.50.

An alumnus may also become a "Lifer" (if he cannot afford the full $60.00 at one time) by paying $15.00 a year for five years. In the case of the non-subscriber to the Quarterly, his first payment is $27.50 (which includes a subscription to the Fraternity magazine) followed by $15.00 payments for four years. Checks should be made payable to Delta Chi Fraternity and mailed to the National Headquarters at 16 S. Clinton St., Iowa City, Iowa.

Dean of Men Fred Turner of the University of Illinois makes a point at the Midwest Regional Conference banquet held April 29 at the Urbana Country Club.

Jim Obear, DePauw "BB", (center) and Henry V. McGurren discuss a point which Jim Gallagher (standing) has raised at the Midwest Regional Conference.

Regional Conferences

Undergraduates sit in on some sage advice from Henry V. McGurren and Jim Obear following one of the discussion sessions at the Midwest Regional Conference.

Representatives of the host chapter, National Fraternity, University, and alumni are shown at the Trans-Mississippi Regional Conference held at the Oklahoma Chapter April 14-15, 1951.

Jack Shirley, "A", and Quentin Spradling, "BB", of the Oklahoma Chapter discuss plans and program of the Trans-Mississippi Regional Conference with Col. Goodwin, a speaker at one of the discussion groups.

Delegates to the Northeast Regional Conference pose on the steps of the Hobart Chapter house, April 7-8, 1951.
